15. FUNCAP – Ceará; and,
16. FUNDECT – Mato Grosso do Sul.

The call offers support for researchers in the UK through:

- a) Fellowships;
- b) Research Mobility Grants, and,
- c) In the case of UK young researchers aiming at working in universities and research institutes in the State of São Paulo, Brazil, this call also offer the opportunity of Young Investigator Grants comprising a scholarship plus a research funding grant.

These activities are under the auspice of the Newton Fund, an initiative that aims to develop the long-term sustainable growth and welfare of partner countries through building research, innovation capacities, and is part of the UK's Official Development Assistance commitment.

These awards offer an opportunity for the UK researcher to develop the strengths and capabilities of their research groups through training, collaboration and reciprocal visits with partners in some of the best research groups in Brazil.

3. Types of grants

3.1 Fellowships

3.1.1 For UK researchers aiming at receiving support from FAPs outside the State of São Paulo

Fellowship support is offered through two categories for a period of 6 to 36 months:

a) For Young Researchers:

- A monthly scholarship of R$ 7,000.00
- Airline ticket (round trip and economic class) and travel insurance
- Scholarship for one undergraduate student to assist the researcher
- Grant in the amount of R$ 25,000.00 each six months

b) For Senior Researchers:

- A monthly scholarship of R$ 10,000.00
- Airline ticket (round trip and economic class) and travel insurance
- Scholarship for one undergraduate student to assist the researcher
- Grant in the amount of R$ 25,000.00 each six months

3.1.2 For UK researchers aiming to receive support from FAPESP, to work in a University or Research Institute in the State of São Paulo

In the state of São Paulo fellowship support is offered through FAPESP Visiting Researcher Grant for a single period to a maximum of 12 months. As mentioned, the UK researcher must be associated to a FAPESP PI (co-applicant) in charge of an ongoing grant of the following types: Thematic, Young Investigator, or Research, Innovation, Engineering Research Centers, Public Policy Research, and Diffusion of Knowledge Centres (more details at <http://www.fapesp.br/en/visiting>):

- A monthly scholarship with value ranging from R$ 10.680,00 (Young Researcher) to R$ 15.870,00 (Full Professor). The level of payment is to be suggested by the host investigator and confirmed by FAPESP upon merit review.
- One return airline ticket and travel insurance.
- Scholarship for one undergraduate student to assist the researcher.
- Grant to the host PI with whom the visitor will be associated: the host PI may request FAPESP supplementary funds up to R$ 25.000.00 for every six months of stay of the visitor. These funds are to be used for research related expenses with consumables, services, and travel.

3.2 Research Mobility support

3.2.1 For UK researchers aiming at receiving support from FAPs outside the state of São Paulo:

Two types of mission can be considered:

a) Mission up to fifteen days:

- Airline ticket (round trip and economic class) and travel insurance.
- Daily support in a value defined by the FAPs or CNPq.

b) Mission from sixteen days to three months:

- Airline ticket (round trip and economic class) and travel insurance.
- A monthly scholarship in the amount of R$ 7,000.00 monthly.

3.2.2 For UK researchers aiming to receive support from FAPESP, to work in a University or Research Institute in the State of São Paulo:

Please note only one single mission is supported by FAPESP, not multiple visits. Two types of mission can be considered:

a) One single mission from seven days to up to one month:

- One return airline ticket and travel insurance.
- Daily support to be paid according to FAPESP's per diem table of values.

b) One single mission from one to twelve months:

- One return airline ticket and travel insurance.

- A monthly scholarship with value ranging from R$ 10.680,00 (Young Researcher) to R$ 15.870,00 (Full Professor). The level is to be suggested by the host investigator and confirmed by FAPESP upon merit review.

3.3 Young Investigator Award (only for FAPESP applicants)

In addition to the above, for young investigators from the UK to start a research career in a university or research institution in the State of São Paulo, FAPESP offers, as part of the State of São Paulo side matching funds, an opportunity through its Young Investigator Awards. A FAPESP Young Investigator Award, a 4-year grant, comprises funds for (more details at www.fapesp.br/en/11315):

- Equipment, consumables, services, and travel necessary to the 4-year research project.
- A monthly scholarship for the Young Investigator of R$ 8.152,20 (tax-free) to be paid for up to four years or until he/she obtains a permanent position in a university or research institution in the State of São Paulo.
- A quota of scholarships for undergraduate students who will work in parts of the research project (Scientific Initiation) and a quota of MSc and Direct Doctorate scholarships for graduate students, to be selected and supervised by the Young Investigator.
- In addition to the approved budget for the discriminated items mentioned above FAPESP includes a value equal to 15% as an overhead to be used in direct research infrastructure or non-anticipated expenses (e.g. travel, visitors,...) necessary for the project, and another 10% that is awarded as an institutional overhead.

4. Selection criteria

All applications will be assessed through a peer review process based on the following criteria:

- a) The quality of the proposed research project.
- b) The record of accomplishment of the applicants, and the host organization in the area of proposed research.
- c) The expected benefits for the career development of the Applicant.
- d) The record of accomplishment and suitability of the Brazilian-based co-applicant and Brazilian host organization in the area of proposed research.
- e) The additional benefits for the Brazilian based Co-applicant and host organization.
- f) Evidence that the support will lead to a long-term collaboration beyond the tenure of the award.

5. Announcement of the Result

Results from this call for proposals will be announced from July 2019.
